Core Competencies

Technical Marketing

- Explaining complex telecommunication jargon to customers in simplified way
- Sell by showing. Creating demos, proof of concepts and showing those to the customers

Co-working with the operators

- Understanding operators needs and fears
- Direct contact to operator gave me possibility to work 'as part of the operator team'

Futuristic view

- I have seen, tested and done demos for most of Nokia IMS applications and I'm able to give recommendations how to make different applications work together
- I have been creating concepts which will be possible in the future

Strong technical background

- Servers, network, integration, terminals
- mobile applications, PC to mobile (internet) convergence

DIY mentality

- Quite often there is no demo available, therefore need to create our own.
- Years ago we did not have OTA provisioning possibilities for Push To Talk in SI Lab. I created one by myself.

Keen and fast learner

- Interested about new technology and will to improve it
